Disciplinary offences should be categorised under the following disciplinary fine bands. The descriptions of offences under these fine bands are a guideline only and are not exhaustive:

Fine Band 1: £10

Ordinary caution/ sin bin (yellow card)

Fine Band 2: £15

Ordinary dismissal (2 yellow cards)

Fine Band 3: £20

Dismissal (includes dangerous play, sarcasm and swearing at the official)

Fine Band 4: £50

Serious dismissal (includes persistent verbal abuse towards official, blows exchanged between players or fighting)

Fine Band 5: £100

Dismissal and exclusion (includes physical abuse towards official plus serious incidents involving other players or spectators).

Please note that the circumstances leading up to a disciplinary offence may be taken into account when issuing a disciplinary fine and in some cases this can result in the offence being categorised in a higher fine band. Similarly, the involvement of multiple players in a disciplinary offence can result in a team fine which may be categorised in a higher fine band.

A player or team ban can be issued in addition to a disciplinary fine. Ban periods can include a 1 to 4 week ban or a permanent ban for an individual player or team. The ban period to be issued to a player or team may be decided based on the seriousness of the offence, the circumstances leading up to the offence, and/or the player's or team's disciplinary history.
